FELLOWSHIP

Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) offers fellowship to a number of Masters and PhD students. These fellowships are available both for local and foreign students.

To be eligible for the fellowship, an applicant needs to be a full-time student, that is he/she must register for at least 12 credit hours and maintain a GPA of 3.00 out of 4.00 in each semester. The fellowship provides monthly stipend of BDT 30,000 and BDT 45,000 for Masters and PhD level students for maximum of 18 and 36 months respectively.

Students with fellowship must complete his/her degree, otherwise he/she must return all the fund to the university. The fellowship awardee must work 40 hours/week with the instruction of his/her supervisor.

While seeking the fellowship, local/current students should apply through their BIIS web portal. Foreign students need to select appropriate Departments/Institutes and propose probable supervisor (if any) during the application, so that, based on their application, they can be distributed among the Departments/Institutes.
